

Please Join Us for the 35th Annual NCAB/AALAS Seminar at the Gaylord National Resort & Convention Center at National Harbor

September 2 - 3, 2009

Registration
Now OPEN

September 1—Frank A. Donnelly Memorial Golf Tournament
September 1—Exhibitor Set Up
September 1 & 2—CMAR Workshop
September 2 & 3—Seminar
September 2—Banquet (Fosters DownEast Lobsterbake & Live Band “Junkfood”)

Program Highlights

Wednesday—September 2, 2009

Keynote Speaker: Patricia Hung, Ph.D.
Bisphenol A in Laboratory Animals and People

Additional Session Topics:

- Rodent Surgical Training & Laparoscopic Biotechnology
- Pathology 101
- Jody Urquhart: Management Workshop
- Career Corner
- Using the Right Decontamination Method for Your Facility
- Definition of Sustainable Design, Animal Facility Guidelines, Accepted Practices, and Risk Assessment
- What's Your Diagnosis?
- Fido's for Freedom (Assistance Dog Demo)
- Cardiovascular & Other Phenotyping Methods in Mice

Thursday—September 3, 2009

Featured Speaker: Jody Urquardt
The Nerve to Serve... Say Hello to Humor & Goodbye to Burnout!

Additional Session Topics:

- Environment and Phenotype —How the Environment Can Affect Your Research
- Rodent Import/Export
- Dr. Jim Weed: Assessing Effectiveness of Environmental Enrichment
- Career Corner
- Necropsy Support: Not Just How To, But How to SAFELY
- Virtual Necropsy Presentation
- Greening Initiatives at NIH
- Greener Cage Wash Operation and Equipment Ideas
- Customizing Training Needs
- Diet—an Environmental Factor